THE HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor system at Southwestern is based on the principal that a student when placed on his honor will not violate the trust. Under this system, in which the student is placed on his honor to keep the code set up by the Council, the Honor Council acts as co-ordinator and mediator.

The Chairman of the Council is the Vice-President of the Student Association, who this year is Kelly Burkhart. Membership of the Council consists of the chairman, two members each from the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes, and two members from the Student Senate. Also members, but carrying no vote, include one member from each sorority and fraternity, and one member each from the Independent boys and girls.

The responsibility for continued existence of this Honor System rests upon the Honor Council. They must strive to impress upon the minds of the students the importance of doing their own work.

ALL SCHOOL BEAUTY CONTEST

Presented each year by the annual staff's sponsorship, this is one of the most impressive and beautiful pageants of the school year, as these photos testify.

Mrs. Jean Reid Severn, All-School Beauty of 1951, presents bouquet to astonished Patti.

Misses Sue Carper, Marina Chapa, Jane Shaeffer, Dolores Bryan.

SOCIALS . . . . .

Formals, when all is at its best, are among the happiest of times.

Here the Zetas dine at Christmas, the A D Pi's dance at Mardi Gras, and the Delta Zetas prepare to cut the cake.

FORMAL . . . . .

Sing Sing?

Sinq-song?

Where the Elite meet
to eat.

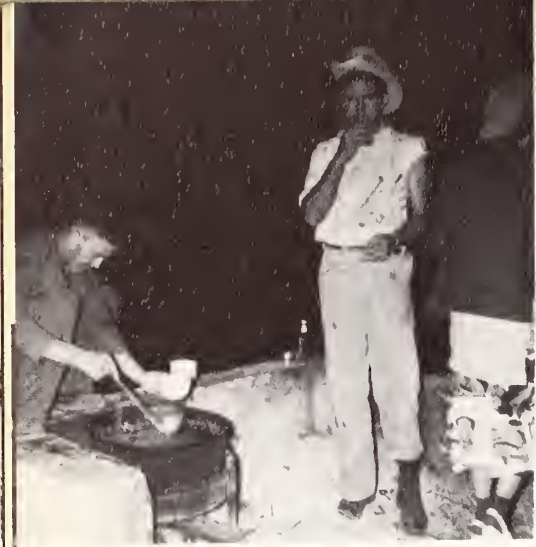

Singing to lure the possum.
Singing to lure the Mood Hallite.

AND UNFORMAL

Smiling through

Merry Christmas!

Three ways to serve it...

One way to eat it.

Kay Wolfer twirling to the Barb's choral background.

A touch of the Orient, as the Zeta's take over most honorable Radio Tokio.

Phi Mu's and Phi Deltas celebrating the arrival of the shrimp boats.

THE VARIETY SHOW

An annual feature of the beauty review, and varying from burlesque to ballerina dancing, the Variety Show gives vent to Southwestern's abundant talent, as these enjoyable moments show.

Lee Folse lets the A D Pi's inspect his prodigious Kroy machine.

Drama from "Stranger in the House"

Comedy, faculty style, in
"Charley's Aunt"

MASK AND WIG

Audience-eye views of some of the best campus activities of the year,
the Mask and Wig productions.

Adventure in the mysterious forest, into which the "Dear Brutus" has stepped.

Always plenty of worry.

Behind the Scenes

Less glamorous views of the non-the-less important people who make the play go on.

. Hustle and last minute preparations in the female side.

At last, the curtain's about to rise on "Papa is All."

Fish prexy Powell is arraigned before the mighty Student Senate.

SENTENCED!

Joined by his heinous cohorts in an humble plea of guilt, and . . .

To evermore wear their dinks and to lead a rousing chorus of our Alma Mater, Court dismissed.

Parlant Francais dans le Vieux Carre

FIELD TRIPS

Not all of the year's activities took place on the campus, and excursions to New Orleans, Monterrey, and to numerous industrial concerns gave insight and added interest to students, who seem to look the same everywhere.

Anne gets took taking.

Boarding E. B. Germany's plane for Dangerfield.

But there is a serious side to the myriad of activities constituting the extra-curricular year at Southwestern; and this most important phase is reflected here in these pictures which capture the dignity, the grace, and the beauty of these memorable events.
